Subject: RE: Donovan site - comments on EC-1

Hi [redacted] - Indeed I have been following this (you might also add [redacted] as one of the site's favourite targets).

[redacted] My previous advice to [redacted] has been to ignore it - any Shell reaction would merely encourage Donovan to think we take this seriously and would likely stimulate more comment on/interest in the site. Also, eg we have long decided not to take legal action against the site (although Donovan would probably welcome this) - eg they often refer to [redacted] as [redacted]

Best regards
