Greetings - you may like to be aware that there have been a few passing (and rather illiterate) references to you on the Chatroom part of the Donovan website <http://royaldutchshellplc.com/blog/archives> which has a longstanding and acrimonious relationship with Snell and is currently carrying a lot of material about and North Sea safety, including comments about and . This is the subject of daily calls involving senior EPE/EP staff.

Let's hope this comes to nothing; but should the references to you turn into something more concrete then we will follow up immediately through more formal channels, involving , copied here.

Best regards
